It's a Party*

The Barkers are having a party this afternoon. It's Sally's birthday and a lot of friends are coming to say happy birthday to her.

Sally's mother and grandmother are cooking in the kitchen. Sally and John are putting the food and dishes on the table. Mr Barker is helping them.

Look at the table. What can you see on it? There is some ham and cheese pizza, sandwiches, chicken salad and tomato and cucumber salad. There are drinks too: apple juice, orange juice and mineral water. The hot dish, chicken with rice and vegetables, is not on the table. It is in the kitchen.

Now the friends are beginning to come.

Peter and Kate are here.

P e t e r: Hi! Happy birthday, Sally.

K a t e: Happy birthday, dear.

P e t e r: Here is your present.

S a l l y: Oh! It's a wonderful book. Thanks a lot.

K a t e: And this mug and chocolates are from me.

S a l l y: I love them. Thank you very much. And what is it there on the mug? Is it my picture? Oh, thanks again. It is beautiful. Would you like some juice or mineral water?

P e t e r: Mineral water for me, please.

Catherine the Great

Catherine II is also known as Catherine the Great. She was the leader of Russia in the 18th century and made the country larger and stronger than ever. During the years when she was on the throne the Russian territory was rapidly growing and soon the country became one of the greatest powers of Europe. Catherine made Russia the dominant ['dommənt] power in the southeast of Europe.

Catherine introduced many new things. A lot of new palaces and houses were built in Russia, many were in the classical style and they changed the face of the country. Catherine was fairly well educated. She wrote books and was very much interested in the arts and literature. She knew many world-famous people of that century and wrote letters to the great French philosopher [fr'loʊsəfə] Voltaire during 15 years trying to make his ideas popular in Russia. Catherine the Great believed in education. She thought education could change the hearts of Russian people. She wanted to develop them. Catherine died in 1796. She is buried at the Peter and Paul Cathedral in St Petersburg and is considered one of the great Russian rulers¹.

B. Why do you think people remember Catherine the Great?

Yesterday I took my younger sister to the cinema to see “Matilda”. It is a fairly old children’s film. I can say it is a family film too because I think grown-ups can enjoy it as much as children.

The film appeared on the screen in 1996. Its director was Danny DeVito, a famous American actor, who starred [stɑ:d] in the film. Mara Wilson played the leading role, that of Matilda. David Newman wrote music to the film.

“Matilda” is truly enjoyable. It is a gripping and moving film. You love every

“Moon River” is a song composed by Henry Mancini with lyrics written by Johnny Mercer. It received an Academy Award for Best Original Song for its first performance by Audrey Hepburn in the film “Breakfast at Tiffany’s” (1961) and the Grammy Award for Song of the Year.

Moon River

Moon River wider than a mile
I’m crossin’ you in style some day.
Old dream-maker, you heartbreaker,
Wherever you’re goin’, I’m goin’ your way.

Two drifters, off to see the world,
There’s such a lot of world to see.
We’re after the same rainbow’s end, waitin’ ’round the bend,
My huckleberry friend, Moon River, and me.
