Samovar Museum

Kolomna is a lovely town near Moscow. It is famous for its local museums. One of them is the Kolomna Samovar Museum. It is the Kingdom of Samovars from all over the world. There are about 500 samovars in the museum. They are of different colours, shapes and sizes. Samovars look like apples, pears, mushrooms etc. They are wedding and crystal. Samovars are giant and small. In the museum you can see the Russian oven ¹ and take a photo on it, too. You must go to Kolomna and visit the museum some day!

Secrets of Kolomna

Kolomna is like an old carved chest. How many beautiful secrets and legends are hidden here! The captivating mysteries of the Kolomna land, hidden treasures, relies of church antiquity and military glory etc. Do you know all these secrets?

Spotlight on Kolomna puzzles out some mysteries and secrets of Kolomna region

Kolomna is an ancient Russian town, located in a little over one hundred versts to the south-east direction from Moscow. During the period of the Troubled Times the adventurers Pseudo-Dmitry the First and after his death

Pseudo-Dmirry the Second encroached upon the Russian throne. Their wife Marina Mnishek had been living for some time in Kolomna. In summer 1612 she and her lover Cossack Chieftain Zarutsky plundered the town and left for the Ryazan' lands. It was difficult and dangerous to take all the seizing things with them. That was why they decided to hide a part of the goods not far from Bogorodskoe village. The legends about the hidden treasure gave provincial adventurers no peace from century to century.

SPOTLIGH ON KOLOMNA

The mysterious word Kolomna. In this very name there is a secret associated with the history of our land. Once upon a time there lived Finno-Ugric tribes. They gave the local rivers their nicknames. A thousand years ago the Slavs came here. They mingled with other tribes, their eyes took on the color of the northern sky, and their hair became light brown, but the language and culture remained the same, Slavic. Only the names of rivers and lakes spoke of the past. In one of the local languages, the root "kol" meant "fish". That means "a fish place" (although there are many versions of the origin of the town name).

On the northern wall of the St. John the Baptist Church there is a stone with the image of a fantastic beast, similar to the leopard and the unicorn. People call it "Batu stamp". It is considered to be the heraldic sign of the Kolomma inheritance. In 2011, a silver coin with the image of a Batu stamp was discovered not far from Kolomea.

My Lovely Ancient Town Matvey Polyakov

I live in lovely ancient town,
Kolomna it is called.
It has a lot of pretty sights,
Which're both new and old.
I'm proud of the Kremlin walls,
The churches and the steeple.
Ice-palace with its spacious halls
Is dear to the people.
They always meet their guests
With kind and friendly faces,
And take them all to rest
To quiet, cosy places.
Small Saucer bank, Cathedral Square
The convents look so bright!
Kolomna's splendid all year round

FOR US TO REMEMBER

For Us to Remember

75 years ago Soviet people gloriously finished the Great Patriotic War, But even today we find out a lot of new facts about the war: new details, new names of Kolomna citizens, who showed courage in the battles.

A famous local historian Anatoly Kazovkin makes a great contribution into this good deed. All his materials are based on real documents and events. Anatoly Kuzovkin wrote about 60 books devoted to Kolomna citizens who fought at the front and worked in the rear for the sake of the victory. Some of his books are about the history of the war, others tell about the Heroes of the Soviet Union and simple and active defenders of their land, who lived in Kolomna.

The book "The Golden Constellation of Kolomra Citizens" was written by Anatoly Kuzovkin in 1976. In his 'Heroes of Kolomna" he tells the readers about 55 Heroes of the Soviet Union. His book "The Kolomna Citizen Is a Glorious Name" consists of 40 essays. One of them is devoted to the Hero of the Soviet Union Boris Khitev, who died while forcing the Dnieper, Anatoly Kuzovkin proposed to install the bust to B.

The writer worked and travelled a lot to find information in different sources. and the readers learnt about some Heroes of the Soviet Union from his books for the first time. Nikolay Vlasov was one of such heroes. In 1943, the pilot was brought down by the enemies' artillery and, unconscious, was captured. Trying to make him cooperate with them, the fascists allowed the Nikolay Vlasov to wear the Hero's Gold

Nowadays, Anatoly Kuzovkin continues his search, tracks the periodicals, the books and the dictionaries. He is looking forward to celebrating the 75th anniversary of the Victory

The idea to erect the bust appeared not long ago, in the August of 2018. The daughter of the famous inventor, Elena Kalashnikova, visited Kolomna and was fascinated by the Memorial Park alley under the blue fir-trees. She decided that the bust should be placed just there because her father loved nature and fir-trees.

Victory Day is a symbol of national pride, glory and folk's feat of arm. We must remember the Great Patriotic War and its heroes. One of them is the pilot A.S. Maslov.

SPOTLIGHT ON RUSSIA FINDS OUT MORE ABOUT "FIRE RAM"

Alexander Spiridonovich Maslov was born in the village of Andreevskoye, Kolomna district of the Moscow Region. The date of his birth is the 22nd of November, 1907. In 1921 Alexander graduated from the factory school in Kolomna. In 1921 - 1926 he studied at school for peasant youth in Aninno.

In October, 1929 Alexander Maslov was drafted into the Red Army. After finishing he decided to study at the aviation school of pilots in Leningrad and devote his life to military aircraft. From 1935 Alexander served in the 82 Heavy Bomber Squadron of the 21 Heavy Bomb Aviation Brigade, based in Rostoy-on-Don together with Nikolai Gastello.

He met the beginning of World War II as the commander of the 3rd squadron of the 207-th aviation regiment. On the fifth day of the war, the 25th of June, Captain Maslov received an order - to launch a bombing attack against enemy troops moving from Vilna to Minsk. Maslov attacked the enemy near the village of Radoshkovichi. Leaving from the target they noticed the smoke coming from the plane. The plane turned on a cluster of German tanks and cars, went into a dive and crashed into the thick of eremy equipment. Until the last moment, from the flaming plane, the enemy was fired by Lieutenant V.M. Balashov and Junior G.B. Reytov, B. Beiksbaev. They fought to the end.

Until 1990 the captain Masloy and his crew remained missed in action. However, during the reburial near Radoshkovichi, Reytov's medallion was found. So, it was stated that the feat was accomplished by the crew of A.S. Maslov.

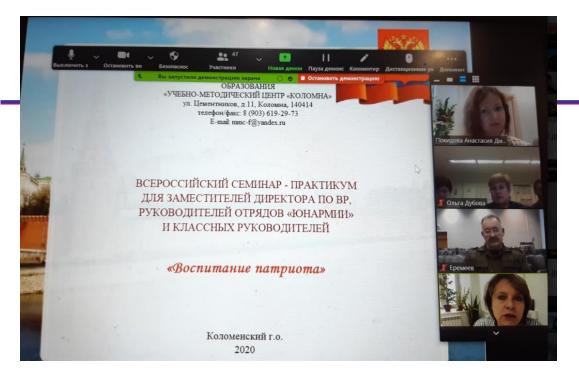

In 1992, A.S. Maslov was awarded the Order of the Patriotic War and in 1996 he and his crew were awarded the titles "Hero of Russia". One of the schools in Kolomna region was called in honor of the captain Maslov. On June 26, 2015 in the settlement of Provodnik there was an unveiling ceremony for the bust of the military pilot. The bust has been presented by Zurab Tsereteli as his gift.

Therefore, remembering the feat of the crew of Maslov, we should not forget that hundreds more soldiers deserve our memory, respect and gratitude.

· Ask and answer questions about A.S. Maslov

Why is it important to keep the memory of the Great Patriotic War and pass it from generation to generation?

Almost every family has a story about war. Do you have relatives who jought in the war? If so, then prepare and give a talk about your relative, who has gone through the war.

с 07.12.2020 по 11.12.2020 на онлайн платформе ZOOM пройдет цикл практико-ориентированных мероприятий, направленных на развитие цифровой грамотности педагога иностранного языка.

В формате коротких, но максимально подробных мастер-классов педагоги смогут ознакомиться с сервисами и ресурсами, помогающими в:

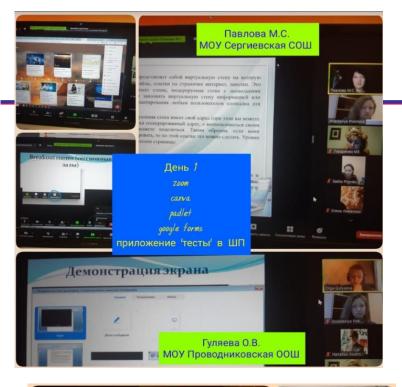

- 1) организации дистанционного урока (понедельник, 07.12);
- 2) развитии навыков аудирования (вторник, 08.12);
- 3) развитии лексико-грамматических навыков (среда, 09.12);
- 4) развитии читательской грамотности (четверг, 10.12);
- 5) развитии навыков говорения (пятница, 11.12).

Во вторник, 08.12.2020, для «погружения» в развитие навыка восприятия информации на слух состоится авторский семинар «Особенностии формирования и развития навыков аудирования в УМК «Сферы» по английскому языку для основной школы» (автор, спикер – Смирнова Е.Ю., учитель АЯ ВКК ГБОУ г. Нужно, важно, актуально. Нужно что-то подобное не только по онлайн-сервисам	Побольше подобных проектов Thanks for useful information •
Я в полном восторге. Многое для себя взяла на заметку.	Чаще организовывать подобные встречи :) Работать вместе с командой замечательных педагогов 🙂 🙂
Неделя была действительно очень интересна и познавательна. Очень интересно узнать, чем пользуются работающие учителя в тех же условиях что и я	Очень хочется, чтобы такие недели проводились чаще (по разным темам, не только интересные ресурсы, но и методы и приёмы)
Нужное полезное мероприятие, повышающее компетенцию учителей иностранных языков	-Thank you for taking the trouble to help us. We highly appreciate it!
Несомненно, важно проводить такие мероприятия и участвовать в подобных мероприятиях. Когда я увидела план, сразу решила поучаствовать во всех сессиях. Не пожалела. Большое количество полезной информации.	Считаю, что такое мероприятие можно сделать ежегодной традицией, и в дистанционном формате это будет гораздо удобней
Актуально, важно, востребовано. Даже если ресурс известен, всегда полезно узнать, как применяют его другие учителя в своей практике	Продолжить обмен опытом с использованием дистанционных технологий, сервисов в данном формате
