- 2 A. Traditional Altai winter footwear is valenki. Read the information from the website page of Altai Krai oldest valenki factory and look at the pictures.

Orbita

Our factory is called Orbita. It is more than 90 years old. It is situated in Rodino, the village in the west of Altai Krai, but our valenki are well-known all over Russia. We use sheep wool only to make this traditional Russian winter footwear. Our valenki are warm, comfortable and all of them are hand-made. Orbita produces valenki of different colours: white, black and red.

- 3 Work in pairs. Discuss the following questions.

1. Are there any theatres in your city (town, village)?
2. Do you often go to the theatre?
3. What theatres of Altai Krai do you know?

Развитие креативного мышления

- 4 Work in groups. Imagine that you are engineers. Take part in an engineer exercise. Write four objects you see in your classroom in one column. Then write adjective for each noun in another column.

Example:

Adjectives	Nouns
red	pen
interactive	table
metal	cup
quick	mobile

Mix the adjectives and you will have new word combinations:

Adjectives	Nouns
quick	pen
red	table
interactive	cup
metal	mobile

How can you use these new objects in the real life? Share your ideas with the class.

Quick pen: You say the words. This pen writes them itself.

Red table: It checks your exercises and gets red when finds mistakes.

Interactive cup: This cup says the temperature of the drink.

Metal mobile: You can't break this phone.

- 2 There are no signs in English in Barnaul Zoo. Look at the examples below and draw English signs for foreign visitors of Barnaul Zoo. Label your signs.

Элементы геймификации

8 Look at the circle. This is a game board. Play the game with your partner. For the game you will need a coin and two counters. Put your counters on the "digital lab" sector. Toss the coin in turns. If it's the head, move one sector ahead. If it's the tail, move two sectors. Every time you stop on some sector, read what is written there and tell your partner everything you remember from the book about this place, person, animal or event. After that the sector is closed and not used in the game. The one who speaks about the last sector wins.

4 A game. Work in groups of three. Read the rules attentively before the game.

1. Imagine you have got 100 points per group to buy the questions. Read them and think of the answers.
2. If your answer is correct, then the points you spent on it will be DOUBLED. But if the answer is not correct, then you will LOSE the points you spent on this question.
3. Discuss with your partners how many points you will spend on each question. You may spend any amount of points, but the sum for all the questions cannot be larger than 100 points.
4. You should spend at least 1 point on each question.
5. Next to each question write its "price" and the correct answer.
6. Don't look for the answers in the book, try to remember them.
7. Discuss the answers quietly, don't help the other groups.
8. When you are ready, exchange your book with one of the other groups.
9. Check the answers of this group with the teacher and count the points they earned.
10. The group that has got the biggest sum at the end of the game wins.
